

South Dakota State University

Open PRAIRIE: Open Public Research Access Institutional Repository and Information Exchange

SDSU Extension Circulars

SDSU Extension

7-1965

People, Problems, and the Future : Reading List for 1965-1967

Mercedes B. MacKay

Follow this and additional works at: https://openprairie.sdstate.edu/extension_circ

Recommended Citation

MacKay, Mercedes B., "People, Problems, and the Future : Reading List for 1965-1967" (1965). SDSU Extension Circulars. 961.

https://openprairie.sdstate.edu/extension_circ/961

This Circular is brought to you for free and open access by the SDSU Extension at Open PRAIRIE: Open Public Research Access Institutional Repository and Information Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in SDSU Extension Circulars by an authorized administrator of Open PRAIRIE: Open Public Research Access Institutional Repository and Information Exchange. For more information, please contact michael.biondo@sdstate.edu.

Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

For current policies and practices, contact SDSU Extension

Website: extension.sdstate.edu

Phone: 605-688-4792

Email: sdsu.extension@sdstate.edu

SDSU Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer in accordance with the nondiscrimination policies of South Dakota State University, the South Dakota Board of Regents and the United States Department of Agriculture.

SOUTH DAKOTA
STATE UNIVERSITY
LIBRARY
MAY 11 1967

People, Problems, and the future

READING LIST FOR 1965-1967

COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE
SOUTH DAKOTA STATE UNIVERSITY
U. S. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

30.732
o 87.17
t 640

STATE LIBRARY SERVICES

Books for study, general reading, or club use are available in the subjects of philosophy, travel, biography, literature, economics, history, science, religion, fine and useful arts. Reference service is available to individuals, clubs or schools requesting assistance with club papers, business information, debate, programs, entertainment, etc.

Rules and Regulations for Borrowing Books

Home Extension Clubs. The reading leader of any Home Extension Club may borrow 10 books from the current Reading In The Home list for club reading. These books are loaned for 1 month and may be renewed for another month.

Reading leaders may request books from previous Reading In The Home lists. Forty-book loans of books from previous Reading In The Home lists may be secured by reading leaders for club use. An application card or letter, signed by officers of the club and the reading leader, is required. A 40-book collection is loaned for a period of 6 months.

Individuals. Any resident of South Dakota may borrow books from the State Library. While there is no limit as to the number of books that may be borrowed, individuals are asked not to request more books than can be used at one time.

Books, as a rule, may be kept for 1 month. If there are other requests on file for them, then they may be kept for 2 weeks. No fees are charged for the use of the books. However, books should be returned promptly when due, so that others may obtain books readily. No books will be issued to any person with books overdue until the overdue books are returned to the State Library.

Lost Books. Each borrower is responsible for loss of books or damage not caused by ordinary wear. Books cannot be charged to one person at the request of another. Requests for books should be signed in the handwriting of the person borrowing books. Return books to the State Library, 322 South Fort Street, Pierre, South Dakota.

Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. John T. Stone, Director of Cooperative Extension Service, South Dakota State University, Brookings.

6M-7-65-2895

People, Problems and the Future

A Reading List Compiled by
Mercedes B. MacKay, Director-Secretary
South Dakota State Library Commission
1965-67

PIONEERS AND THE FRONTIER

- Dye, Eva Emery..... The Conquest, The True Story of Lewis and Clark
An authentic but fictional account of the Lewis and Clark explorations.
- Hassrick, Royal B..... The Sioux
A vivid picture of the Sioux Nation shown through the family life and customs of the Dakotas.
- Lavender, David Sievert..... The Fist in the Wilderness
Absorbing account of the impact of the American fur trade on the Indians and western expansion in the United States.
- Miyakawa, T. Scott..... Protestants and Pioneers: Individualism and Conformity on the American Frontier
The author reveals the influence the frontier church exercised over the social, educational, and community activities of the pioneers.
- Randall, Mercedes M..... Improper Bostonian: Emily Greene Balch, Nobel Peace Laureate
The life story of Emily Greene Balch who pioneered in a field entirely new to women: international political activity.
- Sandoz, Mari..... The Beaver Men
This account reconstructs the period of the American fur frontier days, exploitation of the Indians, and wholesale slaughter of the beaver.
- Seifert, Shirley..... Never No More
The courage of Daniel Boone's wife, Rebecca, is revealed in this story that includes Indian raids, the death of her oldest son, and the marriage of a daughter.
- Smith, Ethel (Sabin)..... A Furrow Deep and True
This childhood memoir describes the way of life and the values that were typical on a Wisconsin farm in the 1890's.

THE MAKING OF A NATION

- American Heritage..... The Presidency
The American Heritage magazine devotes its tenth anniversary issue to the Office of the Presidency and the men who have occupied it.
- Caughey, John W. and May, Ernest R...... A History of the United States
A broad view of American history from the Colonial Era to the end of 1963, with 1890 as the dividing point.
- Chidsey, Donald Barr..... The Birth of the Constitution
This informal history is in effect a popularized version of Madison's Journal of the Federal Convention, 1787.
- Eggenberger, David..... Flags of the U. S. A.
This popular history of the Stars and Stripes traces every step in the development of our present national flag.
- Garrety, John Arthur..... Quarrels That Have Shaped the Constitution
This dramatic account of U. S. Supreme Court cases that have had a definite effect on the Constitution is rewarding reading.
- Hawke, David..... A Transaction of Free Men
A fresh and vivid reassessment of the Declaration of Independence, showing the many interpretations and misinterpretations through the years.
- Humphrey, Hubert Horatio..... The Cause is Mankind
Senator Humphrey suggests a liberal and humanistic program for modern America.
- Johnson, Gerald White..... Hod-Carrier
A noted historian shows how the American democracy is an incomplete experiment in self-government.
- Katz, Wilber Griffith..... Religion and American Constitutions
The author discusses the three conceptions of government handling of religion: support, neutrality, and strict separation.
- Keating, Kenneth B...... Government of the People
A distinguished lawmaker tells what he believes must be done to bring our legislative machinery up-to-date.
- Kursh, Harry..... The United States Office of Education
This book relates the increasingly important Federal role in education, and the part played by the U. S. Office of Education.
- Mooney, Booth..... Mr. Speaker; Four Men Who Shaped the United States House of Representatives
Profiles of four political giants who shaped the U. S. House of Representatives, and brief biographies of all the men who have served as its Speaker.
- Padover, Saul Kussiel..... The Meaning of Democracy
Discusses the fundamental concepts of democracy, historic evolution, and overall strengths and weaknesses.

Warren, Sidney..... The President as World Leader
The qualities of statesmanship of each President are discussed to show the character of his leadership and its effect on Presidential power.

Weaver, John D...... The Great Experiment
An entertaining, accurate and comprehensive examination of the everyday workings of the United States Government.

THE NATION TODAY: ITS PROBLEMS AND FUTURE

Anslinger, Harry Jacob..... The Protectors
This is the "heroic story of narcotic agents, citizens, and officials in their unsung battles against organized crime in America."

Asbell, Bernard..... The New Improved American
Reporting on the changing ways of American life, this author spent three years studying education in this new era of computers and robots.

Bergaust, Erik..... The Next Fifty Years in Space
The future of space efforts is discussed in the light of recent accomplishments.

Blake, Peter..... God's Own Junkyard
Attacks "the planned deterioration of America's landscape" with billboards and natural monuments.

Boulding, Kenneth Ewart..... *The Meaning of the Twentieth Century:
The Great Transition*
A study of social changes necessary to successful living in this highly scientific and technological era.

Dabbs, James McBride..... Who Speaks for the South?
A native Southerner presents, sympathetically, a view of the South today, and what the future may hold for it.

Duscha, Julius..... Taxpayer's Hayride
In this discussion of the farm problem—from New Deal to Billie Sol Estes case—the author says two evils are over production and plight of the small farmer.

Fulbright, James William..... Old Myths and New Realities
Senator Fulbright suggests ways that American foreign policy can deal more realistically with contemporary issues.

Greenway, John..... The Inevitable Americans
The author endeavors to prove that America's character, whatever its flaws, has led to unusual human benefits.

Gregory, Dick and Lipsyte, Robert..... Rigger: An Autobiography
The autobiography of a Negro, born as a welfare case, now a nationally famous entertainer, active in the cause of Civil Rights.

- Gross, Franz B., ed...... The United States and the United Nations
The author examines the impact of the United Nations on American policy, to gain a better understanding of the problems to be faced in a world diplomacy.
- Handlin, Oscar..... Fire-ball in the Night
This appraisal of the trend of civil rights over the past 10 years is recommended.
- Harris, Marvin..... Patterns of Race in the Americas
The author tells us many things about the Latin American states, about their race relationships, and about ourselves.
- Hedgeman, Anna A...... The Trumpet Sounds
The memoirs of a gentle, charming Negro woman who has devoted her life to labor in the cause of Civil Rights.
- Humphrey, Hubert Horatio..... War on Poverty
This is a challenging discussion of the many aspects of poverty in the United States in both rural and urban areas.
- King, Martin Luther..... Why We Can't Wait
For the future the author suggests a national Bill of Rights for the Disadvantaged—colored and white.
- McGrady, Pat..... The Savage Cell
A timely report on cancer and cancer research.
- Macvey, John W...... Alone in the Universe?
A British scientist takes the reader on an imaginary search for life on other planets.
- Morgan, Charles..... A Time to Speak
An Alabama lawyer tells of his 10 year stand against the forces of segregation in his state.
- Overstreet, Harry Allen..... The Strange Tactics of Extremism
The author now discusses characteristics, methods, and personalities of the extreme right.
- Pike, James A...... A Time for Christian Candor
An Episcopal Bishop discusses a present awareness that old doctrines and old traditions are in many cases obsolete.
- Proxmire, Ellen..... One Foot in Washington
The attractive wife of a U. S. Senator chronicles delightfully and candidly, her hectic life in and out of the Nation's Capital.
- Richardson, Robert Shirley and Bonstell, Chesley..... Mars
A leading astronomer and a distinguished painter present a view of Mars, including recent findings, historical facts, and speculations of future explorations.
- Rubin, Jacob A...... Your Hundred Billion Dollars: The Complete Story of American Foreign Aid
The American tax-payer is informed about what the hundred billion dollars spent in foreign aid has accomplished in faraway lands.

- Schumach, Murray.....The Face on the Cutting Room Floor
In this very complete discussion of movie and television censorship the author shows how it may become an international problem.
- Tyler, A. Edward.....The Space Around Us
A comprehensive survey of all we have learned about space up to now, and an educated guess as to where we are going from here.
- Tully, Andrew.....Where Did Your Money Go?
Discusses the fruits and waste in the foreign aid program to show need for reform.

CHALLENGES TO THE FAMILY

- Allendoerfer, Carl B......Mathematics for Parents
This book is designed to aid parents to understand basic facts behind the new mathematics, and to explain the meaning of new terms.
- Barnes, Eric.....The Man Who Lived Twice
The triumphant life-story of Edward Shelton, who, paralyzed, bed-ridden and blind, became a famous character in New York's intellectual world.
- Brenton, Myron.....The Privacy Invaders
The author defends the individual's rights to privacy—a personal right which is being jeopardized.
- Buck, Pearl Sydenstricker.....The Joy of Children
The photographs (part of an exhibit prepared for 1960 White House Conference on children and youth) and text bring out the fact that love and protection are the birthright of every child.
- Covello, Leonard and D'Agostino, Guido.....The Heart is the Teacher
The author, through half a century of teaching and encouraging boys, proves that even seemingly incorrigible delinquents can be turned into useful, productive citizens.
- Cuthrell, Faith (Baldwin).....Living by Faith
An inspirational work designed to help the troubled in spirit.
- Fine, Benjamin.....Stretching Their Minds
An eloquent plea for special education of America's gifted children.
- Lawrence, Josephine.....Not a Cloud in the Sky
This is the humorous but pathetic story of "our aged," through the eyes of a well-adjusted couple, during their first year at Tranquil Acres.
- Retirement Council.....101 Ways to Enjoy Your Leisure
A satisfying book, for both men and women, about real people who have found satisfying leisure vocations in retirement.

- Sharp, Evelyn..... A Parent's Guide to the New Mathematics
For the benefit of parents, the author explains the changes that have been made in high school mathematics.
- Shinn, Roger L...... Tangled World
A study of our changing society and its demands for decisions.
- Simons, Gustave..... What Every Woman Doesn't Know
An eminent tax lawyer, writing especially for women, gives advice on every conceivable financial or tax problem.
- Smith, Bert Kruger..... No Language But a Cry
In a sympathetic way a mental health education specialist speaks for those who cannot speak for themselves, using personal case histories.
- Trace, Arthur S., Jr...... Reading without Dick and Jane
A teacher of English discusses our reading problems, also the practice of vocabulary control for elementary books and its effect on American education.
- Wechsberg, Joseph..... The Best Things in Life
A delightful book, conveying the author's sense of humor, his zest for living, and his appreciation of the unusual.
- Wildavsky, Aaron B...... Leadership in a Small Town
The author believes that community control should be held by a variety of persons and groups, who need training in citizenship.

A NEW HOBBY

- Almeida, Oscar..... Metalwork and Its Decoration by Etching
This well illustrated manual is designed for beginners and advanced students of metalwork.
- Brightbill, Dorothy..... Quilting as a Hobby
Complete directions for making quilts—patchwork, applique, etc.—and pillow tops, clothes and other quilted items.
- De Van, Dorothy Stepat..... Introduction to Home Furnishings
A step-by-step discussion of the various aspects of establishing and furnishing a home.
- Enthoven, Jacqueline..... The Stitches of Creative Embroidery
This stimulating guide gives directions for over 200 stitches, possible borders, and uses of samplers.
- Freehof, Lillian S. and Bandman, Lottie C...... Flowers and Festivals of the Jewish Year
Flower arrangements appropriate to the meaning of the holiday, the folklore, traditions, ceremonies, and blessings are carefully explained and illustrated.

- Guild, Vera P......Creative Use of Stitches
Arts and craft teachers will use this pictorial introduction, with simple text, to embroidery stitches.
- Guthrie, Tyrone.....A New Theatre
This history of the Minneapolis community theater will appeal to theater lovers.
- Hogner, Dorothy Childs.....Gardening and Cooking on Terrace and Patio
Author of A Fresh Herb Platter now presents a mixture of gardening hints with recipes for outdoor cooking.
- Hopkins, Lydia.....Complete Poodle
Comprehensive and clear instructions on the care of poodles, with practical and detailed accounts of show care and training.
- Hunter, Beatrice Trum.....Gardening without Poisons
Like Rachel Carson in Silent Spring, this author deplores the unwise use of insecticides.
- Hvass, Hans.....Birds of the World in Color
Illustrated in color, described and classified, is this representative selection from the eight to nine thousand bird species found in the world.
- Hyder, Max.....Picture Framing
The basic rules for simple picture framing are now explained in detail for the inexperienced.
- Johnson, Mary Ritz.....Mary Johnson's Guide to Altering and Re-styling Ready-made Clothes
The author of Sewing the Easy Way presents further ideas for the experienced home seamstress.
- Masterton, Elsie.....Blueberry Hill Kitchen Notebook
This "notebook" is entertaining and useful. Recipes interspersed with gourmet hints, as is true with the author's earlier books.
- Sandberg, Sara.....Mama Made Minks
Pleasant reading is offered in these lively reminiscences of the Jewish daughter of a family in the furrier business.

MEETING PEOPLE IN OTHER LANDS

- Armstrong, Ruth Gallup.....Sisters Under the Sari
The author tells of recent travels in India with an Indian friend, giving her intimate details of family life.
- Austing, Ronald.....I Went to the Woods
This is the personal account of a bird photographer noted for his high-speed photographs of birds in flight.

- Benchley, Peter..... Time and a Ticket
A newly-graduated Harvard man writes amusingly of his tour of Europe, Egypt, India—for the armchair traveler.
- Berczeller, Richard..... Displaced Doctor
The autobiographical experiences of a Jewish doctor—from Austria 1938, to France, Africa, and to a permanent home in the United States.
- Berque, Jacques..... The Arabs: Their History and Future
An examination of the problems and attitudes of the Arabs of the Middle East by an author who spent many years in Arab countries and writes from personal experience.
- Bradley, David..... Lion among Roses: A Memoir of Finland
A story about a small, isolated country that maintained its independent republic in the face of fiercely threatening obstacles.
- Hillary, Louise..... Keep Calm if You Can
Author relates experiences of her family during a vacation trip to Alaska by car and as campers.
- Hillary, Sir Edmund..... Schoolhouse in the Clouds
The story of a school for natives, in appreciation of their services to Sir Edmund Hillary's Himalayan Expedition.
- Holt, Pat M...... Columbia Today—and Tomorrow
By a study of this land, its people, and its history, the author discusses its present political stability and its probable future.
- Johnson, Alice B...... The Complete Scandinavian Cookbook
This wide variety of recipes from Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, and Iceland includes daily fare, gourmet, smorgasbord, and sandwich tray.
- Kimbrough, Emily..... Forever Old, Forever New
Miss Kimbrough, in her inimitable style, gives an account of her travels in Greece.
- Laurence, Margaret..... New Wind in a Dry Land
Canadian author describes her two year stay in Somaliland, with vivid details of desert tribesmen, their life and customs.
- Mair, George B...... Doctor in Turkey
A physician who knows the country well writes knowingly of its political development and of the loveliness of distant places where life is still unchanged.
- Peale, Norman Vincent..... Adventures in the Holy Land
The popular pastor-author now tells of a pilgrimage with his wife to visit the sites in the Holy Land significant to Christianity.
- Pillsbury, Dorothy L...... Star over Adobe
The author presents a warm and sympathetic picture of her Spanish, Indian, and "Anglo" neighbors in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

- Rauf, Mohammed A......Cuban Journal: Castro's Cuba as It Really Is
 Castro's Cuba as it really is, five years after the revolution; an eye-witness account by an American reporter.
- Rodahl, Kare.....The Last of the Few
 The author and his wife spent two years in Alaska doing research on the adjustment of the Eskimos to cold—in this personal report.
- Schmoe, Floyd Wilfred.....For Love of Some Islands
 The author of A Year in Paradise now describes through personal and family experience the beauty of San Juan Islands of Puget Sound.
- Stewart, Watt.....Keith and Costa Rica:
A Biographical Study of Minor Cooper Keith
 The story of a boy who went to Costa Rica as an engineer's commissary storekeeper and remained to acquire plantations, build a railroad, and found the United Fruit Company.
- Streeter, Edward.....Along the Ridge
 This is an amusing account of three travellers through the mountainous regions of Spain, France, Switzerland, Italy, and Yugoslavia.
- Tracy, Honor Lilbush.....Spanish Leaves
 Author of Silk Hats and No Breakfast writes entertainingly of another look at the Spanish scene in Cordoba, Malaga, Burgos, Barcelona, and Madrid.
- Wibberley, Leonard Patrick O'Connor.....Fiji: Islands of the Dawn
 A fascinating picture of the Fiji Islands, their past and present, drawn by an experienced and sympathetic observer.

PEOPLE WHO DARED

- Bennett, Lerone, Jr......What Manner of Man:
A Biography of Martin Luther King, Jr.
 A chronicle of the life and deeds of this Negro integrationist leader.
- Blythe, Le Gette.....Mountain Doctor
 This is a portrait of a doctor who set up, in North Carolina hill country, a hospital patterned after Albert Schweitzer's in Lambarene.
- Fisher, Aileen L......Fisherman of Galilee
 Simon Bar-Jona the fisherman, later called Peter, tells the story of Christ's ministry, from his baptism to the last words to his disciples.
- Lewis, Anthony.....Gideon's Trumpet
 The story of a convicted man, found not guilty and released from prison after two years of punishment for a crime he did not commit.
- Li, Shu-fan.....Hong Kong Surgeon
 The personal experiences of a successful chest surgeon will appeal to readers who like medical profiles.

- Lomask, Milton..... Seed Money: The Guggenheim Story
This is the story of how the Guggenheim fortune was made, the ways in which it is being spent, and the amazing people who established the foundation.
- Lyons, Eugene..... Herbert Hoover, A Biography
The life story of a man who, in the free-enterprise American way, rose from humblest beginnings to the highest office in the land, and retained his great moral stature.
- MacNair, John Van..... Chaplain on the Waterfront
This biographical sketch tells of an Episcopal rector's accomplishments in bringing about better working conditions for longshoremen.
- Montgomery, Rutherford G...... The Living Wilderness
A well-loved nature writer relates his personal acquaintanceship with wild animals as they live out their lives in their native habitat.
- Robinson, Marion O...... Give My Heart
This is the biography of Canadian Dr. Marion Hilliard, who did much to advance the position of women in medicine.
- Schrader, Herbert Ludwig..... No Other Way
This true account of a doctor's escape from East Germany in 1960 reads like a good suspense story.
- Spiegelgass, Leonard..... Fed to the Teeth
A humorous autobiography of one who is interested in the food habits of people he has met on his global trips.
- Walsh, William B...... A Ship called HOPE
The author-founder of the hospital ship HOPE tells how this project was begun in 1960 and its accomplishments.
- Wilson, Kenneth L...... Angel at Her Shoulder
The author, informally, describes the missionary activities of Lillian Dickson, who has lived and worked in Taiwan, Formosa, since 1927.
- Woodin, Ann..... Home is the Desert
The wife of a zoologist writes of life with her naturalist husband and four sons, in Tucson, Arizona, and the Southwest.
- Yates, Elizabeth..... Howard Thurman
This is the biography of a Negro author and preacher of international recognition.
- Zolotow, Maurice..... Stagestruck
This happy biography of Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne and their theatrical circle of friends reads like a fairy tale.

FOR YOUNG ADULTS

- Allen, Catherine Blanche..... Chariot of the Sun
This account of the author's childhood visit made by wagon train from Kansas into Indian Territory, 1893, is recommended for high school collections.

- Austing, Ronald..... *I Went to the Woods:
The Autobiography of a Bird Photographer*
A forest ranger's unusual experiences as a naturalist and bird photographer, written with engaging enthusiasm and illustrated with his striking high-speed color photographs.
- Brink, Carol Ryrie..... Snow in the River
This story of a Scotch family in Idaho in the early 1900's will interest older high school girls.
- Bendiner Robert..... Obstacle Course on Capitol Hill
This report shows the great difficulty of getting a major issue through Congress and offers suggestions as to reform.
- Cowie, Mervyn..... I Walk with Lions
A native of Kenya speaks informally of his struggles to gain interest in wildlife conservation program for Africa.
- Dolan, Edward F...... Adventure with a Microscope
This biography of Robert Koch, bacteriologist who established germ theory of disease, will interest prospective scientists.
- Dunlop, Agnes Mary..... Girl with a Pen
This biography of Charlotte Bronte is delightful reading and a fine introduction to the work of three sisters, as well as a picture of English life at that time.
- East, Marjorie..... Fashion Your Own
Well-illustrated, step-by-step instructions for making skirts, blouses, shorts, a dress, jacket, suit and formal.
- Eyerly, Jeannette..... Drop-out
In this convincing story, Donnie and Mitch decide a high school diploma is quite necessary before a happy marriage.
- Felsen, Henry Gregor..... To My Son, The Teen-age Driver
Popular author of stories for young people offers sensible advice on driving behavior and ethics.
- Fine, Benjamin..... How to Get Money for College
This useful guide for high school students gives information on available loans, scholarships, student jobs, and possible cost.
- Gerson, Noel Bertram..... Old Hickory
This fictional portrait of Andrew Jackson's colorful life and personality is recommended for use in high school history classes.
- Heaps, Willard Allison..... The Wall of Shame
This dramatic report on the Berlin wall, with stories of brave escapes, will interest young people.
- Hirshberg, Albert..... The Al Kaline Story
This fast-moving biography covers the baseball career of the Detroit Tiger's right fielder from high school years through the 1963 baseball season.

- Hobart, Lois..... Mexican Mural
As a resident of Mexico, the author colorfully describes the home life, education, industry, and art.
- Holt, Rackham..... Mary McLeod Bethune
This is the biography of a child of slave parents who rose to fame through her efforts to better the Negroes in the United States through education.
- Johnson, Gerald White..... Communism
Believes every American should understand communism to understand importance of freedom.
- Kasper, Sydney H...... Careers in the Building Trades
Offers vocational information in such building trades as bricklaying, carpentry, electrical work, sheet metal work, and plumbing.
- Kimbrough, Emily..... Forever Old, Forever New
Entertaining as usual is the author's gay account of a third visit to Greece, with a friend and two teen-age girls.
- Lawrence, Mildred..... Drums in My Heart
In this tale of romance, Rob and Val solve a mystery of sabotage.
- McCart, Samuel W...... Trial by Jury
This easily understood explanation of the jury system is recommended for high school collections.
- Matthews, Hervert Lionel..... Cuba
Author examines the history, character, way of life and economy of Cuba that lead up to the Castro revolution.
- Mehdevi, Anne Sinclair..... Persia Revisited
An American woman who returned with her Persian husband to Teheran vividly depicts the members of his large patriarchal Arab family and the changing life of present-day Iran.
- Murphy, Robert William..... The Pond
Joey learns about nature during visits to his father's hunting and fishing camp, in this story by the author of The Peregrine Falcon.
- Musial, Stanley Frank..... Stan Musial
This biography of an outstanding baseball player contains information about his career, his advice on hitting, and his comments on the game.
- Paris, Jeanne..... Your Future as a Home Economist
This vocational guide for girls covers the varied opportunities for the home economics graduate—teaching, dietetics, social welfare, and business.
- Sandoz, Mari..... The Story Catcher
As in The Horsecatcher, the hero of this tale is a young nonconformist, known for making pictures on skins and for his bravery.

Scholz, Jackson Volney.....Fairway Challenge
This realistic sports story covers the first winter tour of Gary Cannon's professional golf circuit.

Shamburger, Page.....Tracks across the Sky
This history of U. S. air mail has less technical information but emphasizes more of the adventure, courage, and skill of early pilots.

Stoiko, Michael.....Project Gemini: Step to the Moon
Very comprehensive review of rocketry and all exploration of the moon.

Walsh, William B., M.D.....A Ship Called HOPE
The founder of the famous American hospital ship tells the heart-warming story of her maiden voyage with her dedicated team of volunteer medics, bringing help and hope to millions in Indonesia and South Vietnam.

White, Robb.....The Survivor
In this heroic story, Adam, a Navy pilot in World War II is forced, by the torpedoing of the submarine, to assume leadership.

Wilson, Neill C.....Deepdown River
How a family managed to live during the Depression, taking to a pioneer existence in the wilderness country of north-central Idaho.

FOR CHILDREN

Anglund, Joan Walsh.....Cowboy's Secret Life
Another of the author's stories about Brave Cowboy and his imaginary world. (K)*

Ardizzone, Edward.....Peter the Wanderer
Peter hoped to find the old sailor in search of a treasure box in this intriguing story. (1-4)

Baker, Betty.....Killer-of-Death
This is the moving story of Killer-of-Death, son of an Apache chief—the struggle between his doomed people and the whites. (7-9)

Bannon, Laura.....Make Room for Rags
In this appealing dog story, Rags accepts his job of watching two frisky goats. (K-3)

Baruch, Dorothy W.....Kobo and the Wishing Pictures
Kobo's artist father is so busy that he paints his own horse picture, in this charming story. (K-3)

Beatty, Hetty Burlingame.....Trumper
In this rewarding story, Mark curbs the ornery spirit of Trumper, an ex-carriage horse, and wins two 4-H competitions. (3-6)

*K stands for kindergarten; numbers refer to grades.

- Beaty, Janice J...... Plants in His Pack
This is the biography of Edward Palmer, who collected plants, birds, insects, shells, and Indian artifacts in North and South America. (6-9)
- Bishop, Claire Huchet..... Twenty-two Bears
Bears are more fun than sheep on which to learn to count in this delightful picture book. (K-3)
- Bond, Gladys Baker..... A Head on Her Shoulders
Brita has full responsibility in moving her family by crowded boxcar, in this lively pioneer story. (4-7)
- Bosworth, J. Allan..... A Bird for Peter
Peter's pet roadrunner causes him much trouble with Grandpa in this story from the Arizona desert. (4-6)
- Bothwell, Jean..... The Mystery Gatepost
A house built in Revolutionary war days, an old diary, and a pewter box, make this a delightful mystery story. (4-6)
- Bradbury, Bianca..... Goodness and Mercy Jenkins
Mercy finds conforming to Quaker rules of conduct a bit difficult in this likable Puritan story. (6-8)
- Bulla, Clyde Robert..... Indian Hill
This is the tender story of Kee Manygoats and his struggle to be happy in his new life away from the Navajo reservation. (1-4)
- Butters, Dorothy Gilman..... The Bells of Freedom
Jed is the errand boy hero of this Revolutionary War story set in Boston and concerned with counterfeiting patriot money. (5-8)
- Carroll, Ruth..... Runaway Pony, Runaway Dog
In the further adventures of Beanie Tatum's pets, Sassy and Tough Enough is their escape from a veterinarian's farm and a long journey home. (2-6)
- Chalmers, Mary..... Take a Nap, Harry
This sequel to Throw a Kiss, Harry will delight any small child who does not like to go to bed. (K-2)
- Clearly, Beverly..... Ribsy
Henry's dog Ribsy has exciting adventures in the month he is lost, in this funny tale. (3-5)
- Clymer, Eleanor..... Harry, the Wild West Horse
Harry, an outmoded horse, on the Jackson farm, finds a new kind of life in this story. (K-3)
- Clymer, Eleanor Lowenton..... Search for a Living Fossil
The author tells of finding a strange African fish with all the suspense of a mystery story. (5-8)
- Clymer, Eleanor Lowenton..... The Tiny Little House
A playhouse becomes a cookie shop in this charming picture book. (K-3)

- Coatsworth, Elizabeth Jane.....Jon the Unlucky
An orphaned Danish boy discovers a hidden valley, the home of an ancient Viking colony, in this unusual story. (4-6)
- Cone, Molly.....A Promise is a Promise
In this warmly personal story, Ruthy Morgen is glad that her Jewish religion makes her different from others in the neighborhood. (7-9)
- Credle, Ellis.....Big Fraid, Little Fraid
This amusing picture book is about two scared children and a pet monkey. (K-3)
- Dahl, Borgchild.....This Precious Year
Family sacrifice made it possible for Helia to finish her senior year in college in this story of early days in South Dakota. (6-10)
- Fisher, Laura.....Amy and the Sorrel Summer
In this delightful family story, two children earn money for a project that involves a horse. (4-6)
- Freeman, Don.....Dandelion
A vain but lovable lion is not welcome at a tea party, in this amusing picture book. (K-3)
- Freeman, Don.....The Turtle and the Dove
An artistic picture book about the friendship of a turtle and a dove. (K-2)
- Friendlich, Dick.....Relief Pitcher
An exciting baseball story in which shortstop Pete Conroy becomes manager in spite of a knockdown feud. (7-9)
- Garten, Jan.....The Alphabet Tale
This animal guessing game—a new kind of alphabet book—will intrigue pre-school children. (K-3)
- Goudey, Alice E......Butterfly Time
Two children study butterflies from spring to fall in this attractive picture book. (K-3)
- Haywood, Carolyn.....Eddie's Green Thumb
Eddie has real garden problems—what with mislabeled seeds, baby rabbits and scarecrows in this humorous story. (2-4)
- Hofsinde, Robert.....Indians at Home
This author of Indian life books now describes the homes and home life of Algonquin, Iriquois, Seminole, Mandan, and Pueblo Indians. (4-8)
- Ipcar, Dahlov.....I Love My Anteater
This alphabet book is full of humor, surprises and handsome pictures. (K-3)
- Johnson, Annabel.....The Grizzly
David and his father improve their relations during a fishing trip to Montana when an attacking bear enters the scene. (6-9)

- Lexau, Joan M...... Benjie
A little Negro boy goes in search of Granny's lost earring—and finds he isn't shy anymore, in this gentle story. (K-3)
- Lord, Beman..... Rough Ice
Like his father, Eddie hopes to be a star ice hockey player, in this sport story for younger readers. (K-3)
- Marino, Dorothy..... Buzzy Bear Goes Camping
In this further adventure of Buzzy Bear, two small bears learn from the birds about overnight camping. (K-3)
- Mason, Miriam E...... Stevie and His Seven Orphans
Seven puppies would have been a problem for Stevie, if neighbor Debbie had not helped—in this appealing story. (K-3)
- Merrill, Jean..... The Pushcart War
In this humorous story of city life in 1976, trucks and pushcart peddlers really cause a traffic problem. (5-8)
- Miles, Miska..... Pony in the Schoolhouse
In this story, Amy's horse returns during a blizzard which keeps teacher and children in school. (K-3)
- North, Sterling..... Rascal
The author recalls an idyllic year spent with his pet racoon, in this delightful boyhood memoir, excellent for reading aloud. (all ages)
- Ostrom, John H...... The Strange World of Dinosaurs
This exciting account describes the probable appearance and habits of different types of dinosaurs and other prehistoric reptiles. (5-8)
- Patchett, Mary Elwyn..... The End of the Outlaws
Tam tracks down rustlers, on horseback, who had stolen animals from her father, in this story from Australia. (4-6)
- Peet, Bill..... Ella
An elephant learns that farm work is harder than circus life in this colorful picture book. (K-3)
- Piatti, Celestino..... The Happy Owls
Two happy owls explain their secret to the quarrelsome barnyard fowl, in this stunning picture book. (K-3)
- Piper, Roberta..... Little Red
Nan learns how to deal with her pony—as well as new and old friends, in this delightful story. (4-6)
- Proysen Alf..... Mrs. Pepperpot to the Rescue
Jolly Mrs. Pepperpot, Norwegian housewife, shrinks most inconveniently—to help others—in this amusing tale. (4-6)
- Ravielli, Anthony..... The World is Round
A picture book in full color and with simple text explains basic facts about the shape of the earth. (2-5)

- Reed, Meredith..... Our Year Began in April
The growing up years of Linda, a Methodist minister's daughter, make this a delightful family story. (6-9)
- Reynolds, Marjorie..... A Horse Called Mystery
Owlie finds joy in caring for an underfed horse—and learning to jump in this satisfying story. (4-6)
- Sandburg, Helga..... Joel and the Wild Goose
Beautiful illustrations add much to this story in which Joel cares for a wild goose wounded by hunters. (K-3)
- Sobol, Donald J...... Encyclopedia Brown
In this very amusing story, a policeman's hardest cases were solved by his son Encyclopedia. (4-8)
- Stolz, Mary..... The Mystery of the Woods
Because of Tom Kitten, Will, who lives with his elderly grandfather, learns about rules—in this appealing story. (K-3)
- Sykes, Jo..... Trouble Creek
This present day Western story involves a search for a lost boy in the Montana hills—and deer poaching. (7-9)
- Waber, Bernard..... Just Like Abraham Lincoln
Mr. Potts succeeds in teaching the children much about Abraham Lincoln, in this welcome picture book. (K-3)
- Wahl, Jan..... Pleasant Fieldmouse
This charming read-aloud story is about a talking fieldmouse, who rescues Mother Squirrel from a man—and Mrs. Hedehog from a fox. (K-3)
- Wier, Ester..... The Rumptydoolers
Whit is forced to learn about and care for sheep, in this Arizona ranch story. (5-8)
- Williams, Dorothy Jean..... Oh, Susanna!
In this story of homesteading life, Susanna settles, with her family, on a farm in Kansas, just after the Civil War. (7-9)
- Wojciechowska, Maia..... Shadow of a Bull
Manolo proves courageously that he does not want to be a bull fighter in this brave story. (5-9)
- Yates, Elizabeth..... Carolina's Courage
Carolina proves herself a real pioneer as she travels to the Nebraska wilderness by covered wagon, in this family story. (3-5)
- Young, Scott..... A Boy at Leaf's Camp
Bill Spunaska must decide whether or not hockey shall be his career, in this lively story. (6-8)
- Zolotow, Charlotte Shapiro..... The Poodle Who Barked at the Wind
This picture book story proves that a noisy happy house is easier to work in than a lonesome one. (K-3)